ADAMS CO. COURT HOUSE, DECATUR, IND.

The Voice of The Adams County Historical Society

Vol. 6 No. 3

October, 1988

Adams County, Indiana

DONATIONS Post cards of Decatur scenes from an anonymous donor. Various jail artifacts - courtesy of Harold August. 1920 era dresser set and case from Florence Cross. Clothes pins and bag, railroad pick from Erie Railroad, Army-Navy Production Award book for the Decatur Cloverleaf Creameries, Inc. and newspaper accounts of the company - all from Red Morgan. 27th reunion button of the 160th Reg. Ind. Vol. Infantry and a souvenir booklet from the 1912 Decatur Old Home Week celebration from Bill Pogue.

BOUQUETS OF ROSES to: Kathryn Kruse of Ft. Wayne who helped file many boxes of records salvaged from the Court House by Dick Heller, Jr. They are now available in the museum. Also, to Leona Krick, Elisha Merriman, Herb Banning, and Don and Ardena Burke for lawn care this past summer. To Herb Banning's This and That Shop for flowers in the urns planted by Dick and Irma Mailand. To Anita Miller, Leona Krick, and Velma Nyffeler for work inside the museum.

NATURALIZATION Finding an ancestors' naturalization can be a rewarding experience for every family. It provides a definite date to search passenger lists - available at the Ft. Wayne Public Library - and many times the age, birthplace, port of arrival in the United States, and family members of the immigrant. From time to time the Historical Society receives requests for the naturalization papers of an ancestor. Separate naturalization ledgers were begun in Adams County in 1854. Before that these records are found in various order and ledger books in the County Clerk office and are difficult to locate.

Recognizing this problem, the U.S. Department of Justice sponsored a nationwide project from October, 1941, to April, 1942, to locate and index these records. We are fortunate that all ninety-two counties in the state of Indiana participated in the project which was administered by the Division of Community Services Programs, Works Projects Administration. The war effort superseded completion of the project nationwide. The completed index survey files were found in the late 70's in the Archives Division of the Indiana State Library. The Family History Section of the Indiana Historical Society became interested in the files and in 1981 published An Index to Indiana Naturalization Records Found in Various Order Books of the Ninety-two Local Courts Prior to 1907. A copy (172 pages, triple column, paper bound) is still available for $10 to members and $20 non-members plus 5% tax from the Indiana Historical Society, 315 West Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202.

There are a few things to remember when searching the book for a name.

1). These file indexes were compiled by non-trained workers who were told to search and record the Circuit, Probate, Common Pleas, and Superior Court order books for naturalizations and THEY WERE NOT DOUBLE-CHECKED FOR ERRORS. 2) These records were all hand written and names with letters such as H, M, T, J, and W cause problems as each clerk had his own distinct style of handwriting. 3) Most generally, the clerk was of English origin and the language barrier between the county clerk and the German and Swiss pioneers resulted in many names being spelled phonically. We note as an example the name Koenemann found as Kennerman, Keonerman, Kinkunn, Kinerman, Kenneman. 4) The records of several counties were cross-checked with the W.P.A. lists and were verified to be 75 to 98% accurate (except for spelling). 5) Spouse, not always listed, considered citizen via husband.

Naturalization laws were changed frequently. However, in the Adams County time period covered by the index, the first entry was a Declaration of Intent and the second entry (three to five years later) was the granting of the papers. Also to be noted: a request could be made in one county and two years later having changed residence would receive them in another county.

Following is an alphabetical list of names of Adams County naturalizations found in the book. If your ancestor was in Adams County and you do not find him in the list, he may be in the separate Naturalization Ledger or perhaps by checking the complete Indiana index you will find his name in a near-volume, and page of your ancestor to: Donna Roth, Clerk of Adams County, Decatur, IN 46733
